Re Item V

Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

- 1). Reference is made to the following documents:

D1: WO 01 86144 A (WOBLEN ALOYS) 15 November 2001 (2001-11-15)

Document D1, which is considered to represent the most relevant state of the art for claim 1, discloses (cf. page 6, paragraph 4- page 7, paragraph 1, claims 3, 18) "a wind turbine rotor, which comprises a rotor hub and a plurality of blades equipped with a lightening protection system".

- 2). The subject-matter of claim 1 differs from the wind turbine rotor described in (D1) in that:

"the sliding contact connection ensuring electrical contact between the lightening down conductor and the rotor hub irrespective of the pitch angle of the blade".

The subject-matter of claim 1 is therefore novel (Article 33(2) PCT).

The solution of the invention is achieved by using the combination of features claimed in independent claim 1.

Such arrangement is neither disclosed nor suggested by the prior art. Therefore, the subject matter of claim 1 is new and inventive.

- 3). Dependent claims 2-11 refer to particular embodiments of claims 1 and as consequences are also new and inventive.
- 4). Industrial application seems to be possible without any particular difficulties.
